

Media Release

Contact:

Nina Johnston
Clear Lake City Green Space Preservation Committee
Press Officer
281-480-0791
Website: www.clccl.org

May 20, 2005

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Golfers Unite!
Clear Lake City Civic League To Hold Golf Tournament

(Houston, Texas) – Avid golfers, and a few duffers, will have a great opportunity to show their support of one of Clear Lake City's oldest, and best loved golf courses on Saturday, June 11. The Clear Lake City Civic League is hosting a Keep Green Space Green Golf Tournament at the Clear Lake Golf Club on Diana and Reseda, June 11th with a shotgun start at 8 a.m.

All proceeds will go to the Clear Lake City Civic League, and will be earmarked for the Green Space Preservation Committee, which is an organization formed to preserve pre-designated recreation and green space areas to maintain the quality of life in Clear Lake City.

City Councilmember Addie Wiseman, and Civic League President John Branch will be among the notables at tee time.

The entry fee is $55 per player and includes the cart, the golf, a bucket of range balls, four drinks and a BBQ lunch. The format is a Florida Scramble (that's a 4 person-best ball) and prizes will be awarded for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd places and longest drive, and closest to the pin on all par 3's. Get a Hole In One and win $10,000!

To reserve your foursome, or for more information contact Jerry Garrison at 832-567-7052 or Sonya Scalise at 281-830-7509, or check the website www.clccl.org.
Deadline for registration is May 31st.

For more information contact:

Nina Johnston
Clear Lake City Green Space Preservation Committee
Press Officer
281-480-0791
Website: www.clccl.org